

Assembly Technician

Are you an assembly technician with a desire to work in a light manufacturing setting which allows you jump in, lending skills and providing expertise as needed? Jump in and join Data I/O!

Named to Puget Sound Business Journal's list of Fastest Growing Public Companies and Largest Public Companies (with headquarters in Washington State) Data I/O Corporation is the world's leading provider of security provisioning and device programming systems and solutions for semiconductor devices. Our customers are the global automotive electronics manufacturers, Internet-of-Things, wireless and consumer electronics manufacturers. Data I/O's solutions help bring products we use every day to life.

Technicians at Data I/O are responsible for many different parts of the assembly process and actively contribute to ensuring the manufacturing floor is running most efficiently. This is a contract position.

You will need...

- High School Diploma or GED, technical degree in related field, preferred
- Excellent hand/eye coordination
- Technical knowledge and ability to read blueprints, drawings, etc.
- Ability to use assembly tools (i.e., crimpers, clamps)
- Basic understanding of quality control principles and/or experience working in LEAN manufacturing environments
- Ability to communicate clearly and professionally both verbally and in writing, including effective use of listening skills

We offer...

- A small, rewarding, challenging and fast-paced environment
- Convenient Redmond location with free parking

Data I/O Corporation is an Equal Opportunity Employer

Job Types: Full-time, Contract

Pay: From $22.00 per hour